Before leaving for the tour, England played a non-cap fixture against France XV at home in Twickenham. The visitors managed a narrow 26-24 win after Steve Borthwick conceded two late tries.

Meanwhile, Argentina recently defeated the British & Irish Lions 28-24 in a friendly fixture at the Aviva Stadium in Dublin. The two met ahead of the Lions' 2025 tour of Australia.

In head-to-head face-offs, England have dominated the Pumas, winning 21 out of the 27 meetings, including an 8-3 edge in Tests played in Argentina.

The Sporting News looks at the key details ahead of this game, including how to watch the match and kickoff time.
