Digital Netflix gift cards are purchased online and delivered via email or through the Netflix platform directly. They are quick and easy to use, with the code being redeemable instantly. Physical cards, on the other hand, are tangible cards available in retail stores. They require scratching off a protective layer to reveal the redemption code.

Where to Buy

- Retail: You can find physical Netflix gift cards at various retail outlets such as GameStop, Walmart, and Best Buy. They are usually displayed near the gaming section or checkout counters.
- Online: Digital Netflix gift cards can be purchased from online retailers like Amazon, PayPal, and the official Netflix website. They offer instant delivery of the redemption codes via email.
